School Mission and Goals

Children are the most important and valued educators in school. A teacher's role is to teach students how to evaluate, ask critical questions, explore, observe, research and create. Education is an experience of living and not a preparation for future living.

- All students will write every day with an authentic purpose. Each child will build a foundation of writing skills while developing fluency, confidence and the desire to write. All children will see themselves as writers.

Visitors to Zaharis School notice that a joyful social tone exists and that students, teachers and parents learn alongside each other with smiles on their faces.

Without a doubt, our Soaring Eagles slip from time to time and need our support to learn from life's miscues. What better laboratory to learn, grow and experiment in than a school playground? We meet these challenges as teaching moments and address all problems with care, concern and dignity. We have regular staff meetings, cl
